

Panama Canal Regulations

§ 257.103

will not repeat the procedures prescribed by 5 U.S.C. 5514 and agency regulations under section 5514.

(e) If the Commission receives an incomplete or improperly certified debt claim, it will return the claim to the creditor agency with a notice that procedures under 5 U.S.C. 5514 must be complied with and a complete debt claim must be submitted before any action will be taken to collect the debt by offset from the employee's current pay.

(f) If the Commission receives a complete debt claim, deductions shall be scheduled to begin on the next officially established pay interval, if possible. A copy of the debt claim form shall be given to the debtor, together with notice of the date deductions will commence.

(g) The Commission will not review the merits of the creditor agency's determination with respect to the amount or validity of the debt.

AUTHORITY: 29 U.S.C. 794.

SOURCE: 52 FR 26007, July 10, 1987, unless otherwise noted.

§ 257.101 Purpose.

The purpose of this part is to effectuate section 119 of the Rehabilitation, Comprehensive Services, and Developmental Disabilities Amendments of 1978, which amended section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 to prohibit discrimination on the basis of handicap in programs or activities conducted by Executive agencies or the United States Postal Service.

§ 257.102 Application.

This part applies to all programs or activities conducted by the agency except for programs or activities conducted outside the United States which do not involve individuals with handicaps in the United States.

§ 257.103 Definitions.

For purposes of this part, the term—
Agency means the Panama Canal Commission.

Assistant Attorney General means the Assistant Attorney General, Civil Rights Division, United States Department of Justice.

Auxiliary aids means services or devices that enable persons with impaired sensory, manual, or speaking skills to have an equal opportunity to participate in, and enjoy the benefits of, programs or activities conducted by the agency. For example, auxiliary aids useful for persons with impaired vision include readers, materials in Braille, audio recordings, and other similar services and devices. Auxiliary aids useful for persons with impaired hearing include telephone handset amplifiers, telephones compatible with hearing aids, telecommunication devices for deaf persons (TDD's), interpreters, notetakers, written materials, and other similar services and devices.

Complete complaint means a written statement that contains the complainant's name and address and describes the agency's alleged discriminatory actions in sufficient detail to inform the agency of the nature and date of the alleged violation of section 504. It shall be signed by the complainant or by someone authorized to do so on his or her behalf. Complaints filed on behalf of classes or third parties shall describe or identify (by name, if possible) the alleged victims of discrimination.
